I believe that allowing teletype broadcasts of news and information over the air would provide a valuable service.